C. Plaintiffs suing under Bivens may only recover for the violation of certain constitutional rights. If you are suing under Bivens, what constitutional right(s) do you claim is/are being violated by federal officials?

D. Section 1983 allows defendants to be found liable only when they have acted "under color of any statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, or usage, of any State or Territory or the District of Columbia." 42 U.S.C. § 1983. IV. Statement of Claim

State as briefly as possible the facts of your case. Describe how each defendant was personally involved in the alleged wrongful action, along with the dates and locations of all relevant events. You may wish to include further details such as the names of other persons involved in the events giving rise to your claims. Do not cite any cases or statutes. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

A. If the events giving rise to your claim arose outside an institution, describe where and when they arose.
- Lt. Jeremy Nash signed an affidavit accompanied with a arrest warrant on July 22 2024 in General sessions court with a excessive bail of $1,000,000 in Putnam county.
- Jennifer Wilkerson signed an affidavit accompanied with a arrest warrant on July 19, 2024 in General sessions court with a excessive bail of $1,000,000 in Putnam county.

B. If the events giving rise to your claim arose in an institution, describe where and when they arose.

C. What date and approximate time did the events giving rise to your claim(s) occur?

July 22, 2024, I was held in a blindfolded holding cell for two day so I dont know what time exactly.

D. What are the facts underlying your claim(s)? (For example: What happened to you? Who did what? Was anyone else involved? Who else saw what happened?) I was apprehended in Kentucky state for a fugitive warrant in Tennessee on July 22, 2024. On July 22, 2024 I signed a waiver of extradition and promptly brought to the Putnam county jail. I did not see a magistrate or anybody in concerns of bail. On October 10, 2024 I received a copy of the arrest warrant and affidavit that stated bail was set at $1,000,000 and it was signed by Lt. Jeremy Nash and stamped by punniter Wilkerson, status unknown.

V. Injuries

If you sustained injuries related to the events alleged above, describe your injuries and state what medical treatment, if any, you required and did or did not receive. severe depression and anxiety stress, weight loss, heart pain, I received therapy a few times and applied double portions, nothing for the heart pain though except threats.

VI. Relief

State briefly what you want the court to do for you. Make no legal arguments. Do not cite any cases or statutes. If requesting money damages, include the amounts of any actual damages and/or punitive damages claimed for the acts alleged. Explain the basis for these claims. I want to be released on personal recognizance pending trial, or set to a reasonable amount of $75,000 for bail, with any provisions or proposed conditions deemed fit by the courts to set upon pretrial release that pleases them. I would ask for money damages in the amount of 50,000 dollars. An estimated 33,105 dollars for the actual financial troubles and burdens, not being able to post this excessive bail has put me and my family in, and an additional 16,095 dollars for the mental stress and physical strains caused by it as well as the horrible living conditions and the way I've been mistreated, described within my constitutional rights.

VII. Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies Administrative Procedures

The Prison Litigation Reform Act ("PLRA"), 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a), requires that "[n]o action shall be brought with respect to prison conditions under section 1983 of this title, or any other Federal law, by a prisoner confined in any jail, prison, or other correctional facility until such administrative remedies as are available are exhausted."

Administrative remedies are also known as grievance procedures. Your case may be dismissed if you have not exhausted your administrative remedies.

A. Did your claim(s) arise while you were confined in a jail, prison, or other correctional facility?

Yes Pro se Bail reduce motion didn't get chance at initial appearance rushed out court.

Wasn't able to voice complaint in booking.*

If yes, name the jail, prison, or other correctional facility where you were confined at the time of the events giving rise to your claim(s).

cruel and unusual punishment, but the facility shut down the grievance system, which prevented me to further filing grievances with the courts or sheriff office about bail. I wrote the courts and file a "pro se" Reduce of bail motion, though. and none of my grievances of my treatment here have been responded to.*

D. Did you file a grievance in the jail, prison, or other correctional facility where your claim(s) arose concerning the facts relating to this complaint? *Only one grievance I couldn't file because a sergeant and several C.O.'s stole my grievance from me on majors orders that I wasn't allowed things in my cell. Yes
 No

N/A

E. If you did file a grievance:

1. Where did you file the grievance? *On the tablet and kiosk provided in the Pod. I was denied a grievance my first 3 days in custody though. 2. What did you claim in your grievance?

Discrimination, cruel and unusual punishment, harassment

3. What was the result, if any? I've been ignored, everyone who experiences the same has been ignored or tased or maced and beat for their trouble and probably received new charges.
4. What steps, if any, did you take to appeal that decision? Is the grievance process completed? If not, explain why not. (Describe all efforts to appeal to the highest level of the grievance process.)

I Filed grievances until they shut down my ability to file any. I sent request submissions asking for respite, they shut that down to. I asked for titles and names & was told to go through my attorney. They have no appeal process, they don't even answer grievances.

F. If you did not file a grievance:

1. If there are any reasons why you did not file a grievance, state them here:

By the time I was done grieving about my treatment, they wouldn't let me file anymore, so none about excessive bond.

2. If you did not file a grievance but you did inform officials of your claim, state who you informed, when and how, and their response, if any:

I informed different C.O.'s on different shift, they said they'll see. Then never hear from them again. I ask for a Sergeant they deny me.

G. Please set forth any additional information that is relevant to the exhaustion of your administrative remedies.

They just don't respect the grievance process here among many other things, all you have to do, come and see.

As far as the courts they think I'm crazy when I write letters and file motions concerning my bail, no one is listening.

(Note: You may attach as exhibits to this complaint any documents related to the exhaustion of your administrative remedies.)

VIII. Previous Lawsuits

The "three strikes rule" bars a prisoner from bringing a civil action or an appeal in federal court without paying the filing fee if that prisoner has "on three or more prior occasions, while incarcerated or detained in any facility, brought an action or appeal in a court of the United States that was dismissed on the grounds that it is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, unless the prisoner is under imminent danger of serious physical injury." 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g).
